 STRANGULATION HAZARD－ Contains long cords．
$\qquad$

2

Slip cord up through both holes of a green tab keeping cord lengths equal.

4

Place a blue tab between the pink tab and the cord. Run cord up through the blue and pink tabs. (Repeat with second cord.)

6
Place a purple tab under the orange tab and slide it to rest next to the blue tab. Take cord up and through purple and orange tabs. (Repeat with second cord.)

Place a pink tab half way on top of the green tab. Run cord down through pink and green tabs.
(Repeat with second cord.)

Place an orange tab between the cord and the blue tab. Slide it to rest next to the pink tab. Run cord down through orange and blue tabs. (Repeat with second cord.)

7
Pace a yellow tab over the purple tab and slide it to rest next to the orange tab. Take cord down through yellow and purple tabs.
(Repeat with second cord.)

Continue adding tabs in color pattern illustrated until you have strung 22 tabs.

9
Complete bracelet by threading the cords up through the green tab holes and back through the orange tab holes.

10

Snug both ends of the bracelet together, placing the green tab under the orange tab. Thread cord down through the holes of the pink and green tab.

1
Turn bracelet inside out. Tie a double knot with the cords. Cut off excess cord and place a dab of craft glue on the knot to hold it closed. Turn bracelet right side out.
