

CONGRATULATIONS, YOU ARE NOW THE PROUD OWNER OF THE ULTIMATE
"GETTING TO KNOW ONE ANOTHER" GAME CALLED:

HAT CHAT™

The object of the game is very simple... getting to know one another while using your imagination and just having a good time! There are no winners or losers, just get ready for lots of laughs and plenty of surprises. It's all in the answers... this game can be as structured or as imaginative as your groups answers to the questions.

1. Start the game by having your group face one another by sitting in a circle or square around a table.
2. Place all of the hats (including any extras you may have already collected) into the center of the table.
3. Next, ask everyone in the group to choose a hat from the collection and pass it to the person on their right. Once everyone in the group has their hat on, ask that they all try to imagine themselves as the proud owner of that hat along with all of it's owner traits and history.
4. Next, ask one person from your group to start the game by choosing one card from the question deck and have them read it out loud for the entire group. Once that person has finished answering all three questions on the card, the game continues with the next person choosing a card and so on. Play until all cards have been used.
5. Game Variations:
 - Extra blank cards have been added to the game so that you can add some of your own questions.
 - Once everyone has answered a 3-part question you could have a hat swap and start the process over again with everyone wearing new hats.
 - Ask people to choose and read cards for each other.
 - Have everyone choose their own hat.
 - Put a hat on each players chair before your group enters.
 - Have everyone in the group answer each question.
 - Attach unique names or add accessories to the hats for added fun.
